

Serial numbers on Trikkes:

If you are trying to identify the model of your Trikke and the year of its manufacture the most common place to look at is the front structure of your Trikke. The company started adding serial numbers in 2008 in most vehicles with the exception of the Bikee and the T5/Jogo.

The following pictures will show you the most common places where you can find the Trikke’s serial number.

T7 Fitness/ Kids – The serial number is located on the lower part of the front structure right next to the routing supports for the brake cables. The 10th digit in this serial number indicates the year of manufactured. Letter B represents the year 2011 as shown in the table below.

Steel models T67, T78

The serial number is located on the lower back side of the front structure in between the brake cables. The 10th digit has the digit "B" therefore the vehicle was manufactured in 2011.

Table 1. Digit-year of manufacture for Trikkes.

Aluminum models T8s, T12

The serial number in this T12 is located on the low right side of the front structure, right next to the black extension arm. The vehicle was manufactured in 2012.

T8H Pon-e tribred – the serial number in this Trikke is located on the lower right side of the front structure in between the right arm extension and the base of the control box. The 10th digit in this trikke indicates it was manufacture in 2009.

Other generations of Pon-es have the serial number in a label located on the back side of the bottom of the front structure just below the yoke.

Pon-es manufactured in 2012 and on have the serial numbers engraved on the back-right side of the front structure. There is no need to remove the fairing from the trikke to see the serial number.

The serial number is also on a label placed on the inside of the right arm (visible for registering purpose, removable label), as well as on the outside of the box.

Please note that Trikke Tech Inc. won't be controlling serial numbers as we sell, but when you buy from us, you have the chance to write it down to include on the Invoice if you want.
